The attended of the invaluable medicine, for loss of masculine energy, physical lastude, and general prostration, or ony of the consequences of youthful indiscretion, or indulgence of the passions in riper years, renders it the most valuable preparation ever discovered; in fact, as a remedy for the above complaints it stands univalled and alone. There is no other reliable remedy, or any that has authentically received the sanction of the medical faculty. The wonderful vegetable production of which this medicine is composed has been tested, and its victues proclaimed, by the highest names of the faculty of London, Paris, and the chiracities of Europe, as well as by eminent physicians in this country. It is the only infallible remedy for nervous, head and mind complaints—the mental physics so long sought for and never before found—the only agent that can administer to mind diseases. It will remove all nervous affections, depression, excitement, inexpectly to study or business, lors of memory, confusion, thoughts of self-destruction, fear of insanity, &c. It will restore the appetite, renew the health of those who have destroyed it by sensual excesses or evil practices.

Dr. Wood, of Massachusetts, writes of one of his patients being cured by using this cordial, thus:—'It gives me pleasure to inform you that one of my patients, while in Boston, procured sone of your cordial. He tells use he had not a single emission after he commenced taking it, while before he had two or three a week. When he applied to me,' says Dr. W., "I thought it hardly possible for him ever to regain his full strength. I prescribed the usual medicines used in these cases in the hospital, but they had no effect. In the meantime, he purchased some of your cordial, highly spide in the proper of the hospital, but they had no effect. In the meantime, he purchased some of users of the meantime of procured some of your cordial. I must say it completely cured me."

Another says—"I was surprised at the effect your cordial had. Why had I not heard of it before? It would have saved me so much expense, besides years of mental and bedily suffering."

HYGIASTIKA.—A SPEEDY AND CERTAIN CURE FOR neuralgia, tic doloreux, toothache, nervous headache, and rheumatism in the head, and a sure preventive of convulsions, or any other complaints attendant upon early childhood during the period of teething, has been discovered, and is now being successfully administered in the form of a medicated necklace, to be worn next the skin by the patient. An eminent German physician discovered the virtues of the valuable medicines of which the beads of the necklace are made, and prescribed the mode of application. The notice of the public is not, therefore, called to a quack medicine, but to a medicament recommended by one of the most eminent of the faculty, as peculiarly powerful in acting through the pores of the skin directy upon the diseased or excited nerves, affording, generally, instant, and always permanent relief, and effecting a permanent cure. Patients who, at twenty-four hours trial of the medicated necklace, according to prescription, find no relief, may, at the close of that period, by immediately returning the same, receive back their money. SCHUFFNER & MULDENER.

Testmoony.—I do hereby certify that the composition of the medicated necklace second of such a nature as to unfailingly produce the most satisfactory results.

THE MARRIED WOMAN'S PRIVATE MEDICAL COMpanion—By Dr. A. M. Mauriceau, Professor of Diseases of Women. Twentieth edition, 16mo, pp. 253. Price $1. Years of suffering, of physical and mental anguish, to many an affectionate lefte, and pecuniary difficulties to the husband, might have been spared by a timely possession of this work. It is intended especially for the married, or those contemplating marriage, as it discloses important secrets which should be known to them particularly.

Here, also, every female—the wife, the mother—the one either budding into womanhood, or the other in the decline of years, in whom nature contemplates as important change, can discover the causes, symptoms, and the most cefficient remedies, and the most certain mede elever, in every complaint to which her sex is subject. (Extract of a letter from a gentleman in Dayton, Ohio.)

Dr. A. M. MAURICRAV, 129 Liberty skeet.

My Dear Sir—My wife has been perceptibly sinking for some three years or more, in consequence of her great anguish and suffering some months before and during her confinement—every successive one more and more debiliating and prostrating her, putting her life in immantial danger, and which was, on the last occasion, depaired of. I supposed this state of things was inevitable, and regimed my-elf to reset the worst. At this time, (now about two mouths.) I heard your book highly spoken of, as containing some matters reaching my case. On its receipt and perusal, I cannot express to you the relief it afforded my distressed mind, and the joy its pages imparted to my wife, on learning that the great discovery of M. M. Dasomeaux provided a remedy. It opened a prospect to me which if little conceived was possible. Butfor this, ere another year would have passed over my head, in all human probability my wife would have been in her grave, and my children both motherless.
